

N.M.S. SERMATHAI VASAN COLLEGE FOR WOMEN

Department of English

National Conference 2014

Date: 26.09.2014

Topic: Trends in Alternative Literature

Chief Guest: Ms. P. N. Nisha.
Research Scholar.
Delhi.

Nearly 150 papers were presented in the conference. All the presented papers covered the topic very effectively. New trends regarding womanism, gender, casticism, racism, Dalit concepts, colonialism were the main focus of discussion in this conference.

International Conference 2016

Date: 23.1.2016

Topic: “The Role of Literature in Social Upliftment: Need of New Perspectives”

Resource Person: Miss.Mouloo Nasseripur
Research Fellow
University Kerala,
IRAN.

Resource Person: Mrs.Audrey Simon
Visiting Professor of Foreign Language in India,
FRANCE

Around 100 participants participated in the conference and presented their papers. The paper presentation was headed by eminent dignitaries from India. The conference highlighted how literature is the mirror of society. It also highlighted how Literature is only meant to create beautiful or entertaining works to please and entertain people and artists themselves.

National Conference 2017

Date: 08.02.2017

Topic: “Rereading of the Marginalized In English Literature”

Chief Guest: Dr.Samuel Rufes,M.A,M.Phil,Phd, Associate Professor,
Madras Christian College,
Chennai

Technical Session

Dr.E.DileepM.A.Mphil,Phd.,
Assistant Professor,
Kuppam university, Andra Pradesh.

“Rereading of the Marginalized In English Literature” emphasized that Literature is best understood as a combinative process, produced not only by writers but various mediating figures and processes besides, at the combined levels of content, commercial production and distribution, and social and literary context. 1000 papers from all over India came to this conference.