WORKSHOP ON BOOK REVIEW:

THE MAP TO YOUR ENTREPRENEURIAL JOURNEY &
ENTREPRENEURSHIP & LEADERSHIP

REPORT

Date:23.12.2025

Venue : Library Conference Hall

N.M.S.Sermathai Vasan College for Women, as a part of Internal Quality Assurance Cell initiative programme for promoting book review activities, A Workshop on Book Review: The Map to your Entrepreneurial Journey and an Inspiring Speech on Entrepreneurship and Leadership was jointly organized by the IQAC,VPRG Library, and the Departments of English and Tamil on 23.12.2025. The programme aimed to encourage students to develop a habit of reading, critical thinking, and effective communication while also motivating them towards leadership and entrepreneurial excellence.

The programme commenced with a Welcome Address delivered by Ms. Pushpa Rani, IQAC Coordinator, who warmly welcomed the gathering and highlighted the importance of the workshop. This was followed by a felicitation address by the Principal, who encouraged the participants and emphasized the relevance of the workshop in enhancing knowledge and skills.

The session was handled by Dr. P. Uma, Former Director of the MBA Department, Fatima College, and currently the Director of Unique Research & Consultancy Service, Madurai. With her vast academic and professional experience, Dr. P. Uma delivered an engaging and insightful session emphasizing the transformative power of reading and book reviews in shaping personality and professional competence. She highlighted how books act as silent mentors, guiding individuals in decision-making, problem-solving, and leadership development.

During her inspiring address on entrepreneurship and leadership, Dr. P. Uma shared practical examples and real-life experiences to motivate students. She stressed the importance of vision, resilience, innovation, and ethical values in becoming successful entrepreneurs and leaders. The resource person also encouraged students to think beyond conventional career paths and to cultivate self-confidence, adaptability, and continuous learning.

The interactive nature of the programme kept the participants actively involved. Students responded enthusiastically and reflected on how book reviews can improve analytical skills, communication abilities, and self-expression. The programme successfully created awareness about leadership qualities and entrepreneurial mindset among students from various disciplines.

The programme concluded with a Vote of Thanks proposed by Ms. S. Tamilarasi, NAACCo-ordinator, who expressed gratitude to the resource persons, organizers, and participants for their cooperation and support in making the workshop a success.

The number of students attended the workshop was 120. Overall, the workshop proved to be a meaningful academic and motivational experience. It reinforced the role of IQAC in enhancing quality initiatives within the institution and strengthened collaboration between the library and academic departments. The programme left a lasting impact by inspiring students to read, reflect, and lead with purpose.
